

The JOURNEY — Walking Daily with Jesus

Guest Speaker Gladys Mungo to speak at worship June 26

SEVENTH ANNUAL BABY SHOWER SET FOR JUNE 27

It's Our 7th Annual Baby Shower Luncheon! Admission is ONE BABY GIFT for the Lutheran World Relief Baby Care Kits (see list below). And who doesn't love a baby shower and shopping for one?! It's hard to resist those cute, adorable little things!

There is also a great need for new or gently used baby and toddler clothing and other gear, which will be given to the Pregnancy Help Center and Benjamin House. Unlike other baby showers, please do not wrap your presents.

A chicken pile-up lunch will be served and a free will offering will cover that cost. Gladys Mungo, founder of Haiti's Children Inc., is the guest speaker. She will also speak at the Sunday worship service on June 26, at 10 am. [NOTE: There only be one service this date!]

Gladys has lived in Haiti since 2008. Haiti's Children is a 501(c)(3) recognized public charity and provides primary and secondary education, vocational training, and food programs to needy children in Haiti. This support, along with medical clinics and agricultural and environmental education, is designed to move poverty-stricken Haitians towards self-sufficiency.

A key goal is to give children the chance to receive Jesus Christ as their personal Lord and Savior to reassure the children of Haiti that God has not forgotten them. "God loves them, always has, always will."

In 2002, Gladys began working in Haiti organizing, raising funds and staffing ongoing mission teams. Food, medical treatment and education were provided for an impoverished and remote village, Basin Caiman, on Haiti's southern coast. Gladys still leads mission teams in Haiti who teach and work alongside our Haitian brothers and sisters.

PASTOR JON'S COLUMN – Passin' it On!!! – “Seating for the Spiritually Handicapped!”

Well, well, well ... Are you one who uses the advent of a new year to make resolutions? Perhaps you don't make resolutions but still use that time of year to think about what you would like to change about yourself – what you believe needs to be different in your life. If you are, how is that working for you?

I have a few personal thoughts about this resolution thing – this desire to change, or have changed for us – that which we think needs to be different.

First, is the usually faulty premise that I have: that when I make those resolutions, I actually know what I need. I have to ask myself, “How often do I really know what I need?” For that matter, when do any of us really “know” what we need? I mean look at the guy in the second chapter of Mark. His buddies carry him on a mat to seek healing from Jesus. The guy can't walk – Gotta assume that what he wants (his resolution) is to walk again. But Jesus knows what he needs first. “Son, your sins are forgiven.” SO I guess I am not alone in not always “knowing” what I need.

Second, is that my resolutions typically give me a great sense of control, and seem to be mostly about me taking control of my life, my world - myself! Not much room for my God in that equation. When my resolution succeeds, I get a false sense that I am in control – until the next crisis, trouble, or bump in the road! Then I resort back to what I have always done – EXCEPT to do it better, harder, longer, with more passion! Look at me go!

Then I usually end up by the wayside, like the guy in the fifth chapter of John who has been lying outside the pool of healing waters for 38 years waiting to get to the pool at the right time and maybe be healed. We don't know exactly why he hasn't been able to get into the pool and possibly be healed of his infirmities. Maybe he didn't exactly know what he needed. Maybe the problem was that he thought he knew exactly what he needed, AND how it should be provided, AND how HE was going to do it. Or maybe, he felt sorry for himself, or was ashamed, or was afraid – afraid to be changed even though it was needed.

need & control

We do get some insight into him as Jesus approaches this man who lay in his own pile of self-pity and victimization. I am betting he probably made plenty of resolutions – each outlining exactly what he thought he needed and exactly how he was going to make it happen. After 38 years he wasn't really any further along than when he started. Then Jesus approaches and cuts to the heart of the matter for this man, for me...and for you – looks past the outside of this man right into his very soul. The starting point of the only resolution we need to respond to. Jesus asks the man, “Do you want to get well?”

The man responds with what I loosely read as a litany of previous resolutions and self-attempts that haven't worked. Apparently this man never thought to call on the power of the One who can transform, heal, and change him from within. Apparently this man could see his outward handicap but was oblivious to his inward, spiritual handicap as well. Now there is a guy in the Bible I can relate to! With a single question from Jesus, “Do you want to get well?” Jesus cuts through all the self-generated resolutions (the “I know what I need better than anyone or anything else” - needs) of our lives and brings us to the only need we always really have in our lives – “Do I want to get well?”

Then secondly, Jesus' question assumes that we cannot do it by ourselves, cannot resolve our “spiritual handicap” on our own. OUCH! What about me? What about my control? Jesus passes by us and asks again and again, sees us parked in our own personal “Spiritual Handicapped” parking spaces of life and asks, “Do you want to get well?”

What does this have to do with anything? – you might be asking (If I haven't lost you by now). Well, maybe not much, except that as you go through your day, your week, another year – as you reflect on what you think you need, what needs to change (it's you by the way) or where to start – let us be reminded that we are all handicapped children of God, really needing nothing more than to get well; that our spiritual handicaps can be transformed, changed, and emboldened by the one who comes to ask us, “Do you want to get well?” – Jesus himself. The man brought by his friends on the mat came to know this.

WHAT'S HAPPENIN' WITH TLC WOMEN — MAY MEETING

The meeting was called to order by President Marcia Kampf, in the Fellowship Hall, at 11:04 am, May 19. Fourteen willing women were present. The secretary's report was reviewed, motion made by June, seconded by Char to approve it. Motion passed. The treasurer's report was reviewed, motion made to approve it by Carol, and seconded by Virginia. Motion passed.

We "passed the basket" for each woman to give a donation. It was decided we'd accumulate the offerings for three months, then June will write a check to Charity Knauff to use to fund Timber Bay meals for the teens. During the school year we'll donate the money toward meals for the confirmation students.

Altar Guild: Beginning Memorial Day weekend we'll start with two church services, one outdoor at 8:30 am, and one indoor at 10 am, and communion will be served every Sunday, at both services (during the summer). The first and third Sundays will be the usual wine/bread communion and the second and fourth Sundays will be the wine/wafers/intinction communion. Altar Guild person for June is Dianne Buxton, with Janet Scheiffer doing the early service.

Outreach: Plan on attending the Baby Shower Monday, at noon, June 27, at our church. Bring baby things, enjoy the "chicken pile up" luncheon, and hear an outstanding speaker, Grace Mungo, who is working with children in Haiti. Outreach is a very busy committee and needs more women to volunteer to help their committee. See Colleen Gindt or Karen Hayes for more information.

Northwoods Raffle (quilt raffle): Chaired by Jean Jastram, this event is moving forward with giant leaps. Ginger has finished the beautiful, appliquéed northwoods quilt, which is done in red, blue, black and white. Carol's daughter has quilted it, and given us a special price of $200 for that job. Posters, tickets, and ways to sell tickets are being put together at this moment. All proceeds go to the Food Pantry, and the drawing for the raffle prizes will be at the Community Oktoberfest, October 8. A community Oktoberfest meal will be served at the Birchwood School Commons at that time, along with several other items for a silent auction. Paul Oman has donated a watercolor, worth over $600 when framed, of a Bayfield, WI harbor scene that will also be listed on the ticket.

The May Rummage Sale is already underway, and it will take place May 26-28. This is our big fundraiser for the year. All women of the church step forth to make this a success. The two ladies who have been running this sale, Barb Hinderman and Eleanor Kuula, (for forever, they say!) are stepping down after this year, so we need two more ladies to come forth and chair this event.

Summer refreshments will be served between the two Sunday services, in the Fellowship Hall, by the women of Trinity. Committees are set up, Char is the chairperson and will call the head of each committee to remind them their Sunday is "on deck." We're going back to serving home baked goods, fresh fruit, and coffee.

By-laws are needed for our organization. Marcia suggested that she, the president, Ginger, the vice president, and Dianne, the secretary, get together to start this process, and then present it to the ladies for discussion, and eventual approval.

The Salad Luncheon will be Tuesday, August 9, in the Fellowship Hall at our church. We need two ladies to step up and co-chair this committee. Our speaker for the day is Diane Brask, a missionary, who lives by Grantsburg, WI and is the coordinator for the National Network of Youth Ministries.

After the meeting, which adjourned at 11:45, we enjoyed our own salad luncheon, and then listened to Jill Keefer, Master Gardener, as she demonstrated how to make beautiful summer pots using all different kinds of flowers. The flower pot she put together is in the bell tower in the front of our church. She does beautiful work, and we thank her for coming and talking to us.

On May 19, the Thursday night's Women's Bible Study started a new study entitled Spiritual Warfare: Overcoming the Enemy.

The study is about learning how the devil operates, the limits of his power, how to defend yourself against his attacks and develop a strategy for daily victory. The ladies meet at 6:30 pm in the Trinity Room and cost for the 6 lessons is $10. We'd love to have you join us! For more info, contact Barb Kleven at 715-834-9988.

The poolside recluse did too. Once in a while I get it. I pray that you do, too. If you are ever in the Birchwood, WI area and are compelled to drop by Trinity Lutheran Church for worship, feel free to pick out the appropriate spiritual handicapped seating in the pews. Or, just drop in on your own church or parish for worship. For every seat is a seat for those who want to be well. Oh – and by the way, the answer to Jesus’ question, “Do you want to get well?” – is yes, for those playing along at home! May your only resolution be to respond to Him who calls out to you – “Do you want to get well?” AMEN

Volunteers Needed Now
OUTREACH/MISSIONS REQUESTS MET BY TRINITY MEMBERS

If it seems like every time you turn around there is another plea from Outreach/ Missions, you're right!

Quilts are made by a group of ecumenical women who meet at Trinity every Monday (Sept-May). In addition, in partnership with Lutheran World Relief (LWR) to help God's children in all places, we have several kit projects throughout the year which have life-changing goods in them. The various LWR kits (Personal Care, Baby Care, Fabric, and School) have components that are determined by LWR. In order to make these kits, Outreach seeks contributions from the entire congregation of Trinity.

The response has always been quite overwhelming! THANK-YOU, THANK-YOU! TRINITY members!

This year, at the same time that the campaign for Personal Care kits was going on, the Birchwood Food Pantry sent out a plea for many of the same items. Thanks to the tremendous generosity of the Trinity congregation, 20 health kits were made – doubling last year's 10 kits. In addition there were 6 large shopping bags of health care products given to the Food Pantry!

Those of you faithfully hanging on to pill bottles for the now-concluded Malawi Project, thank you. Before collections ended (nationwide), an unimaginable 2.5 million bottles had been collected for the Malawi Project!!

Over and over again, every plea sent out by Outreach/Missions has been met and exceeded by the selfless giving and generosity shown by the Trinity congregation.

New Need - Now Outreach/Missions has a new need and our small little group is hoping that it is met with the same willingness to help. We desperately need more people who will join us and help with the huge mission that makes up Outreach/Mission. Please consider joining us. The rewards are unbelievable!

SUMMER SURPRISE CHOIR

The Trinity Choir will take its regular hiatus over the summer, but we will have a Surprise Summer Choir on the 1st and 3rd Sundays.

The first Surprise Choir will sing on June 5. So meet at 9:15 am, rehearse an easy anthem, and sing during the 10 am service! The anthem is early in the service, to accommodate those who attend the 8:30 service but want to sing with us.

KINDNESS IS THE R-E-A-L TALENT

After being named the 2016 Talent Show Prize Winner at the New Auburn School Talent Show in that same-named town in north-western Wisconsin, high school senior McKinze Berg, who performed a glow dance version of "The Evolution of Dance," came up to collect her prize money when she took the microphone from the emcee. The crowd only thought an acceptance speech would be given.

Nope! Something so much better. "This is great," McKinze said, "but I can't accept this award when there is someone so much deserving. Matthew, come on up here!"

Matthew, who has Down's Syndrome, was very brave earlier in the show. He did a great job singing his version of Kokomo with his teacher close at his side. When the song was over, he gave a "shout out" to Rock 'n Roll and jumped off the stage!

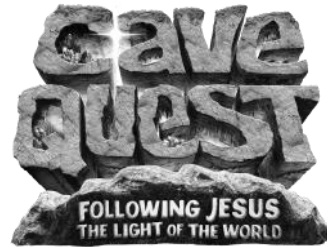

This very true story goes to show our children are amazing. Raising kids in a small town can make for big hearts. They just know how to do the right thing. In a world where cyberbullying and misbehaving teens make the news, it's uplifting to hear that goodness abounds in your backyard. In this small town of New Auburn, already made popular by Michael Perry's folksy book, Population 485, McKinze has proven winning isn't everything; that kindness and sharing count as well.

You see, McKinze is no stranger to kindness, because she's been on the receiving end. Born with a birth defect, which is now corrected, and many operations later, she knows first-hand how to receive, and how to give back when she can. This talented, trumpet-playing, straight-A student is going on to work in the medical profession, and will, no doubt, be very successful in it.

By sharing this story you can help brighten someone's day. Take McKinze's example of kindness and 'pay it forward' to someone, in person, when the opportunity presents itself. Whether you do this with a smile, or just taking the time to ask how some is doing, you can make a difference. And it doesn't take much - just you - to make a difference. Think about it.

This news release is written by one proud grandma — Dianne Buxton.
